

4-5 YEARS | WEEK 59

Stories - Paper Aeroplanes

---

1. Co-read the story

---

11. Colouring mandala

---

2. Nature elements

---

12. Helping activities

---

3. Friendship

---

13. Match the feelings

---

4. I spy with my eye

---

14. Checklists

---

5. Things that make me happy or sad

---

15. Unscramble words

---

6. Tracing positive affirmations

---

16. Tracing maze

---

7. Poster

---

17. Kindness acts

---

8. Gratitude - Treasure hunt

---

18. Galaxy of good habits

---

9. No fire cooking

---

19. Story activity 2

---

10. Story activity 1

---

20. Craft activity

Hello children! I am Bheem.
My friends and I will be your fun-learning partners for the EXPRESSING EMOTIONS series!

Paper aeroplanes : co-read the story

It was Sunday and Bheem, Chhutki, Raju, Jaggu, Kalia and Dholu-Bholu were planning to make paper aeroplanes and fly them. "Let's have a race and see whose aeroplane flies the farthest!" said Raju. "Yes! Let's do that," said the other children. "First, let us decorate them so that we know which aeroplane is whose," said Jaggu. All the children sat down to decorate their paper aeroplanes.

After a while, all of them had beautiful and colourful aeroplanes with different patterns. Bheem had painted circles on his red aeroplane, Chhutki had painted zigzags on her pink aeroplane, Raju had painted stripes on his green aeroplane, Jaggu had painted a big sun on his blue aeroplane, Kalia had painted a smiley face on his orange aeroplane, and Dholu-Bholu had painted big flowers on their yellow aeroplanes. Everyone went outside to race their aeroplanes.

While racing their aeroplanes, Chhutki's aeroplane got hit with Kalia's. The tip of Chhutki's aeroplane bent and her aeroplane crashed down. Chhutki started crying. But Kalia and Dholu-Bholu were busy laughing and they did not see Chhutki run away.

Tuntun auntie went to see what was wrong. Chhutki said sadly, "Kalia's aeroplane broke mine and they were laughing." "Why don't you tell them you are upset with what happened?" asked Tuntun auntie. Chhutki said, "But will they listen to me?" "Why don't you write a letter saying how upset you are that this happened so that they will also understand how you are feeling? I will help you write it," said Tuntun auntie. Chhutki thought this was a good idea and sat down to write her letter. In it, she wrote how upset she was when her aeroplane was damaged, and it hurt her when they laughed.

Chhutki ran back to her friends and gave Kalia and Dholu-Bholu her letter. After reading it, the boys felt really bad for laughing at Chhutki. Kalia said, "I'm sorry, Chhutki. We should not have laughed." "Yes, thank you for writing us a letter telling us how you feel," said Dholu-Bholu. "Come, now let's get your aeroplane repaired," said Bheem. They found her pink aeroplane lying on the ground and repaired it. When Chhutki got it back, she was very happy and felt brave for telling her friends how she felt.

After Chhutki's aeroplane was fixed, they all raced their aeroplanes and Chhutki's flew the farthest!

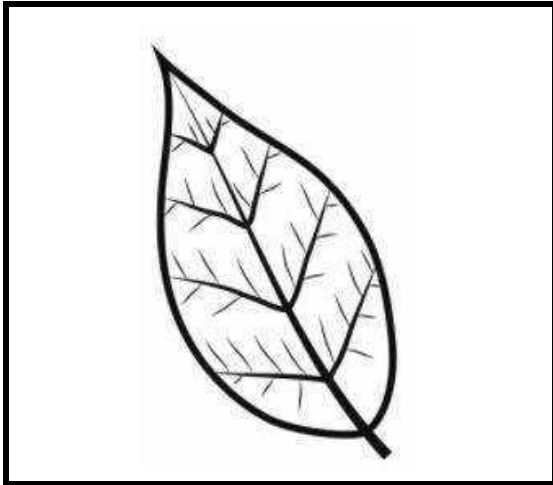

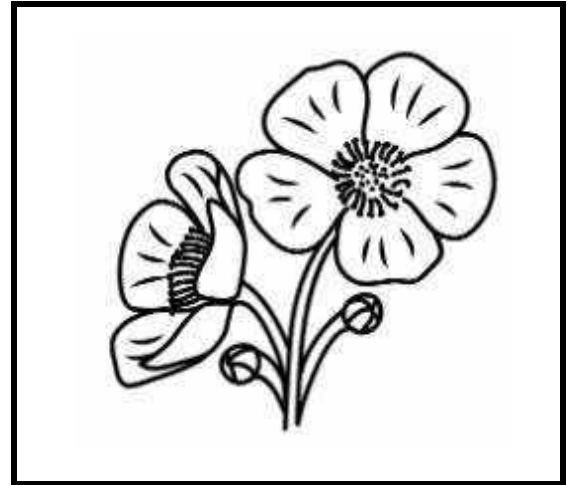

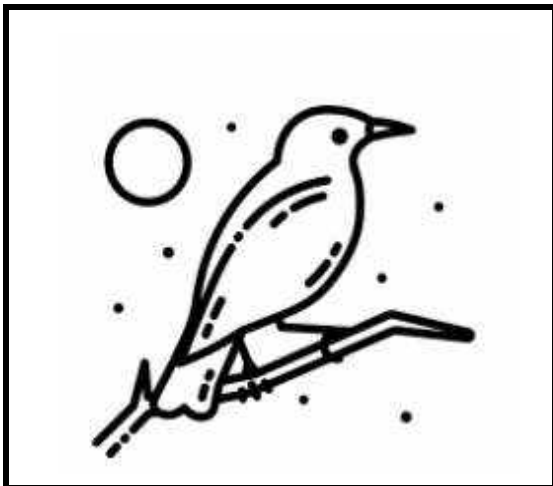

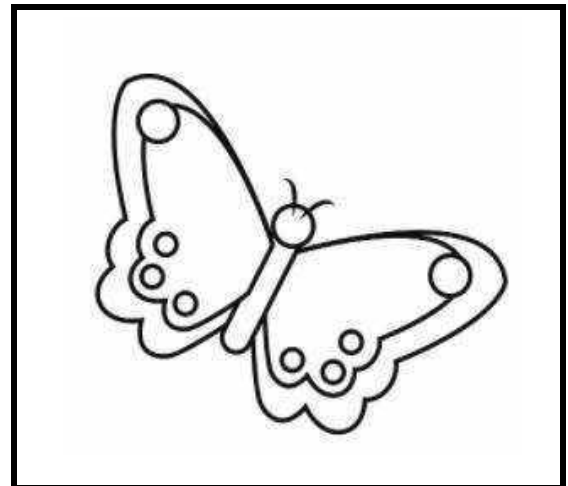

Hello children! I am Bheem.
My friends and I will be your fun-learning partners for the EXPRESSING EMOTIONS series!

Nature elements

Chhutki found the following nature elements in the park. Tick the elements in the blank box given below you find in the park when you go for a walk and colour them.

☐☐☐☐

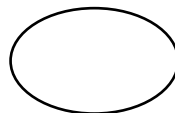

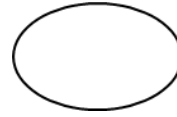

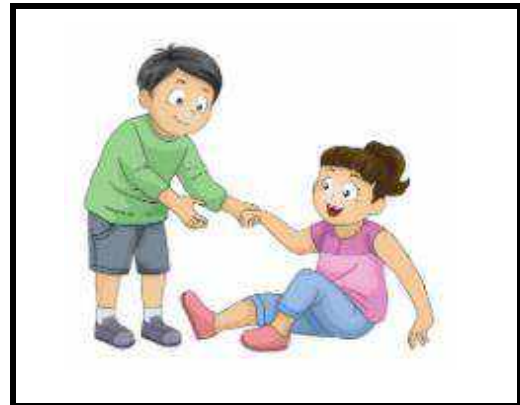

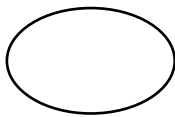

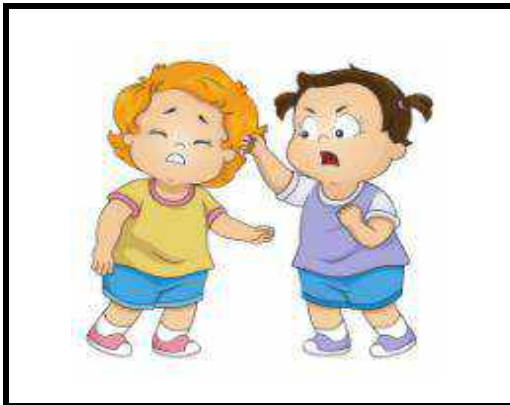

Hello children! I am Bheem.
My friends and I will be your fun-learning partners for
the EXPRESSING EMOTIONS series!

Friendship

Chhutki was upset by her friends' reactions when her plane crashed down. Identify the friendly and unfriendly images and draw a happy or a sad face respectively in the blank oval given below.

Good behaviour

Not a good behaviour

Access 12,000+ expert-designed worksheets

Subscribe Now!

Explore all Stories worksheets